

I CHOOSE

IMPORTANT OVER URGENT – WEEK 4

Small Group Time:

Talking through the message during the week helps you and your group turn what God is saying to you into action steps. Begin with key questions, add any optional Scriptures and questions if needed, and then wrap up by deciding on your next steps.

Main Idea:

We are the result of our decisions. While we agonize over little things like what to wear and what to eat, are we glossing over the big choices? There might be more on the line than you thought when you say “I Choose.”

Key Questions:

1. If you got two extra hours each day, what would you do more of?
2. Which word best describes your last few weeks? Relaxed, busy, full, fun, rewarding. Why?
3. Read Luke 10:38-40. Do you identify with Mary or Martha? Explain.
4. Why do you think we're tempted to allow urgent things to rule our lives?
5. Name three urgent things you need to do and three important things you need to do. Which are getting more of your time?
6. Do you have a process or trick that reminds you to choose important over urgent? Share an example.
7. What's the most important thing you've been too distracted to pursue? What do you need to stop doing to pursue it?
8. What are you saying “yes” to that you need to say “no” to? Share out loud, make a list, and create a deadline to take your first steps (like, today).

Next Steps:

- What's one thing you will do this week as a result of something you learned from this message?
